NEW LIBRARY WEBSITE!

We are pleased to announce the launch of Concord Public Library's new and improved website! The new library website continues to provide you with the same information, services, and resources but with improved functionality and a modern and mobile responsive display. Find library news, programs, and one-click access to the library catalog, your account, and other helpful links all on the home page! The new site is a work in progress so please let us know what you think! For questions, please contact the library at library@concordnh.gov.

STEAM TEAM 7/18 @4

Feel the Vibrations:
The Science of Sound

Did you know you could feel sound? Learn what vibrations have to do with what we hear. See sound with our vocal visualizer and cornstarch monsters. Also, in honor of Libraries Rock, we will make membranophones and buzzing noise makers. Registration is required.

— FOUND IN THE — CONCORD ROOM

This 1794 New Hampshire military handbook is based on the regulations set forth by Inspector General Baron von Steuben and Major General John Sullivan during the American Revolution. Learn more by exploring the Concord Room, the Concord Public Library's historical archive, anytime the library is open.

Meeting MONTHLY

Grown-Up Coloring

Use our art supplies and coloring pages as we spend an hour relaxing with this creative, stress-relieving activity. This group meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 6PM, in the library auditorium.
